

- Parma, Duke of, see M.
Cambace'rèB.
Pasquier, Baron, Minister of Justice, iv. 230.
Pater Noster, a pamphlet dedicated to the Pope, ii. 325.
Patrauld, Father, his attachment to Napoleon, i. 7.
Paul I., Emperor of Kussia, eccentric character of, i. 313; unites with Napoleon, and orders the English Ambassador to leave Petersburg, 314; his confidence in M. Sprengporten, 314; his admiration of Napoleon, and hatred of the English, 315; alliance with Napoleon, 315; assassinated, ii. 43; character of, 44.
Pellèw, Sir Edward, captures Genoa, iv. 15, n.
Peltier, M., journal published by, ii. 66; prosecuted by Napoleon, 67.
Percier, M., his opinion on the projected bridge, the Pont des Arts, i. 362.
Peaignou, General, prisoner in Austria, i. 317; created a Marshal, ii. 267; end of his career, iv. 263.
Perre'e, M., flotilla commanded by, i. 140; his engagement with the Turks, 141.
Perregaux, M., his opinion on the proposed surrender of Paris, iii. 351.
- -, Mademoiselle, her marriage, i. 119.
Persia, Shah of, consents to the establishment of military magazines in his territory, i. 162.
Peyrou, M., energetic remarks of, ii. 361-, against the war with France, iii. 57.
Pianosa, island of, captured, iv. 30.
Pichegru, General, communications of, with the Prince of Conde", i. 71; letter from the Prince to, 73; answers, ib.; his enmity to Napoleon, ii. 208; his conspiracy, 209; transported to Guiana, escapes, ib., n.; refuses to sign his examination, 216; arrested, 248; honorable trait in his character, ib.; account of him, 249; found dead in his chamber, 252; anecdote of, ib., n.; his suicide doubted, 254; examination of his body, ib., n.
Picton, Sir Thomas, arrives at Quatre Bras, iv. 149; his engagement with the French, ib.; his bravery, 151; account of his death, 170, n.
Pierre, Bernardin de Saint, his great talent, ii. 198.
Piontkowsky joins Napoleon at St. Helena, iv. 321.
Pirch, General, Prussian corps commanded by, iv. 125.
Pitt, Mr., his hatred of France, ii. 189; observation of, 242; his treaty with Sweden, 329; death of, iii. 25.

Pius VII., his arrival in Paris,
 ii.32f>; respect paid to,
ib.; crowns
 Napoleon, 332,
n.; refuses the proposition!*
 made to him, iii.
 250; removed to Fontuaebk-au, 255; his friendship for
 M. Denon, ib.;
 hi» Con-
cordat, 273;
 departs from France, 342.
 Plessen, Baron, Miiitacrr of State to the Duke of Mecklenburg, iii.
 184. Poilrincourt, Mademoiselle,
 her exertions
 to procure M.
 Defcu's releane,
 i. 'Wtf. Pole, Hon.
 William Long
 Wellealey, hm determined conduct, iii. 79.
 Polignac, Armand
 de, trial of, if.
 '273; circumstances of his life, 284, ?/.. ;
 appeal of,
 285; sentenced
 to death, ib.;
 pardoned, 287.
 -----, Jules de,
 circumstances of
 bin life, ii.
 284, n.; his address to the judges, 28.">;
 sentenced to imprisonment, 2Sti.
 -----, Madame, her interview with Napoleon,
 ii. 310.
 Poniatowski, Prince, account of,
 iii. 21K);
 description of
 his death, 208;
 monument
 to his memory,
 299. Ponsonby, General, killed at the battle of Waterloo, iv. 170.
 Pont des Arts, built
 by Napoleon, i.
 'M'2. L'oute-Gorvo,
 Prince of, see Beriuidotte.
 Portalis, M., appointed to present the code
 Napoleon, ii. 147.
 Porto-Ferrajo, old
 name of, revived,
 iv. 151.
 Portugal, offers of
 to Napoleon, ii.
 4f>; in vasion of, iii. 95.
 -----, Prince Regent
 of, embark*) for Brusdl,
 iii. 96.
 Poussielgue, M.,
 sent to innpeet
 the poru
 of the Levant, i.
 117; ill BUUUOHH of,
 120. Pozzo-di-
 Borgo, M., prenent at a meeting
 atM. de Talleyrand's, iii.
 358. Pradel, Comic de, appointed Intendant of the King's Household, iv. l«l.
 Pradt, Abbe" de,
 declaration of, ill.
 369;
 appointed Chancellor of the Leghm of Honor, 361.
 Pringle, Captain,
 obHervutioiw of, iv.
 Jf»8;
 statement of,
 107; hi« renmrku on the battle of Waterloo,
 17«, 177, 1H2.
 Pritanee, college of,
 Nnpoleon't* viwit
 to, i.
 366. "Project of a dettnitive Treaty between France and the AllieH," iii. ;m.
 Provence, Count
 de, nee LOIUM
 XVIII. Prussia,
 ignoble behavior
 of, ii. IWH, «. ;
 patriotism in, Iii.
 77, n.
 - -, King of, see
 Frederick William.
 - -, Queen of, Hee
 Willu'lmina.
 Pu/y, M., Bureau
 de, Htato priwoijer at Olmutz, i. 61.